Deferral of tax payments

Factsheet generated on 29 April 2020, 12:41

Country	Germany, applies nationwide
Time period	Temporary, 23 March 2020 - 31 December 2020
Type	Legislation or other statutory regulation
Category	Supporting businesses to stay afloat – Direct or indirect financial support
Case created	09 April 2020 (updated 22 April 2020)

Background information

The Federal Government has changed tax law, in order to help business to stay afloat and improve their financial liquidity. If companies are not able to pay their taxes due to their financial losses in the crisis, they can apply for deferral of their tax payments. This will be free of interest. Companies need to file their application with the local tax authority office. This measure is part of the support package to stabilise the German economy and help out firms during the Corona crisis. The package was adopted by the Federal Government at the end of March 2020.

Content of measure

The German Federal Government eased tax rules for companies affected by the Corona pandemic. If companies are not able to pay their taxes due to their financial losses in the crisis, they can apply for deferral of their tax payments. This will be free of interest. Applications need to be sent to local tax authorities by the end of 2020. Though applicants must prove that they are directly affected by the current crisis, they do not have to provide evidence regards their losses or incurred damages. This measure concerns income, corporate and the sales tax. If needed, the motor vehicle tax can also be postponed.
