Background Information

Taxpayers may request to divide or to postpone tax payments for a period of up to three years, counting from the date of submission of the application, as well as to grant an extension for overdue tax payments, the payment term of which has already been extended in accordance with the Law if the overdue is the result of COVID-19 crisis.

The measure is established by the law “On Measures for the Prevention and Suppression of Threat to the State and Its Consequences Due to the Spread of COVID-19” (adopted on 20 March 2020, valid from 22 March 2020).

All conditions in detail for this measure are set by the Regulation of Cabinet of Ministers Nr 165 “Regulations Regarding the Employers Affected by the Crisis Caused by COVID-19 which are Eligible for the Allowance for Idle Time and Division of the Payment for Late Tax Payments in Instalments or Deferral Thereof for up to Three Years”.

Content of measure

The following taxpayers which have been affected by the crisis may request to divide or to postpone tax payments:

- income from economic activity has, due to the spread of COVID-19, decreased by at least 30 per cent in March or April 2020 in comparison with the respective month in 2019;
- income from economic activity has, due to the spread of COVID-19, decreased by at least 20 per cent in March or April 2020 in comparison with the respective month in 2019, and they meet at least one of the following criteria: in 2019, the export volume of the employer affected by the crisis amounts to 10 % of the total turnover or is not less than EUR 500 000; or the average monthly gross work remuneration disbursed by the employer affected by the crisis in 2019 is not less than EUR 800; or as on 31 December 2019, long-term investments in fixed assets are at least EUR 500 000.

The taxpayer has, not later than within two months after setting in of the term for payment or the day of coming into force of the Law, submit a justified application to the State Revenue Service. State Revenue Service has the right to divide the payment for late tax payments in instalments or to defer it for a period of up to three years as of the date of the submission of the application.

No late payment fee is calculated for overdue tax payment, if the payments are granted the extension.

Information about the company is not included in the database of tax debtors administered by the State Revenue Service.

Use of measure

Up to 5 April 2020, 949 enterprises have received deferral of tax payments (tax holidays).
