Unemployment benefit guarantee in case of temporary collective dismissal or reduced working time

Factsheet generated on 01 May 2020, 19:18

Country	Spain, applies nationwide
Time period	Open ended, started on 18 March 2020
Type	Legislation or other statutory regulation
Category	Income protection beyond short-time work – Income support for unemployed
Case created	13 April 2020 (updated 30 April 2020)

Background information

All workers affected by temporary collective dismissals or reduced working time schemes will have the right to perceive unemployment benefits even if they do not meet the minimum contribution period required for it. Moreover, for future unemployment spells, the period receiving unemployment benefits under temporary collective dismissals or reduced working time schemes motivated by the Covid-19 will not be considered as consumed ('counter to zero' policy).

The objective of this measure is to make sure that all workers under these procedures will receive income support

Content of measure

This measure applies to all workers under a temporary collective dismissal or reduced working time procedure, including those in cooperatives.

In all cases it is required that the contract has been signed prior to the date of entry into force of this royal decree-law.

The measures provided for in this regulation shall be applicable to the affected workers, both if, at the time of the adoption of the temporary collective dismissal or reduced working time procedure, they had a previous right to unemployment benefit or subsidy suspended and if they lacked the minimum period of listed employment to cause right to contributory benefit, or had not received previous unemployment benefit.
