Background information

This exceptional and temporary measure provided for Decree Law 10-F/2020 of 26 March 2020 (amended by the Declaration of Rectification 13/2020 of 28 March 2020) aims at protecting companies in order to protect employment and jobs, and to create conditions to ensure, as much as possible, business survival. Tax and social contributions payment is thus flexibilised.

The measure published on 26 March applies retroactively from 12 March.

This measure seeks to address the economic impact of COVID-19 disease pandemic especially among the companies mostly affected by this exceptional situation.

Content of measure

Aiming at ensuring liquidity to businesses and to preserve their activity and respective jobs, this measure flexibilizes the payment of taxes and social contributions, keeping the punctual payment of levies.

It is approved:

- A regime of flexibilisation of payments regarding VAT, withholdings on personal income tax and corporate income tax, due in the second quarter 2020;
- A regime of deferred payment of social contributions due by employers and independent workers.

The measures approved aim to support SMEs, but their application to other businesses is not excluded, namely those experiencing a loss in their activity of at least 20%, as well as those that were shut down, by the Decree 2-A/2020 of 20 March, and to the aviation and tourism sectors.
