Background Information

The Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic (Ministerstvo zahraničních věcí České republiky, MZV ČR) supports Czech exporters. Embassies of the Czech Republic and MZV ČR offer assistance to Czech entrepreneurs in case of problems with the realisation of commercial supplies abroad, especially in the case of administrative barriers imposed on importers by local authorities in connection with the COVID-19 pandemic. With respect to the mobility restrictions across Europe and other countries, MZV ČR offer assistance in finding new contacts and opportunities.

Content of measure

Emergency package for Czech exporters contains mainly:

- 1) Practical information on conducting foreign operations in a coronavirus situation with a number of restrictions in the target country;
- 2) Embassies assistance in problems with performing of the trade case;
- 3) Finding and analysing opportunities, assisting in identifying and verifying suitable partners.
- 4) Assistance and information sharing through a series of webinars and online consultations.
- 5) Offer to use the services of local experts to assist the business on site during the negotiating and implementing the business.

These services are for free and are supported by other anti-coronavirus measures, e. g. debt moratorium, COVID I and COVID II programmes and others.
