Case created	09 April 2020 (updated 20 April 2020)

Background Information

Aiming at responding to the specific nature of the threat of infection by Covid-19, the management of the attendances and schedulings must be done in order to ensure unequivocally the rights of all foreign citizens with pending processes in the Foreigners and Borders Service (Serviço de Estrangeiros e Fronteiras - SEF).

The Order 3863-B/2020 of 27 March 2020 provides for that, on the date when the state of national emergency was declared, these foreign citizens are in situation of regular permanence in national territory.

Content of measure

The Order 3863-B/2020 of 27 March 2020 provides for that from 18 March 2020, the date when the state of national emergency was declared, the foreign citizens with pending processes at the SEF are in situation of regular permanence in national territory.

These pending processes cover requests for entry and permanence in national territory; and requests for asylum, refugee or subsidiary protection.

The documents proving the request made or the scheduling at the SEF are to be considered valid by all public services, notably to obtain an user number, access to the National Health Service or other rights to health care, access to social benefits, conclusion of renting contracts, conclusion of employment contracts, opening of bank accounts and hiring of essential public services.
