Category	Employment protection and retention – Changes to dismissal law or employment protection legislation
Case created	16 April 2020 (updated 25 April 2020)

Background Information

By virtue of the Legislative Act 20.03.2020 "Urgent measures to address the consequences of the spread of COVID-19 coronavirus, to support the society and entrepreneurship, and to safeguard the smooth operation of the market and public administration" and the Ministerial Decisions 13031/Δ1.4551, 12997/231/2020 & 12998/232/23-3-2020, businesses that have been financially affected as per their Activity Code Numbers (ACN), or their operation has been suspended under a state decision, are able to suspend contracts of employment of part or all of the staff for a continuous period of 45 days, while prohibiting employees' dismissal.

Art. 11 par. 2A, Legislative Act of 20.03.2020 & Ministerial Decisions 13031/Δ1.4551,

Content of measure

Businesses that have been financially affected as per their Activity Code Numbers (ACN), or their operation has been suspended under a state decision, can suspend contracts of employment of part or all of the staff for a continuous period of 45 days, while prohibiting employees' dismissal. The list of ACNs is dynamic and more ACNs may be included. Should a dismissal take place - regardless of whether that dismissal concerns an employee whose employment has been suspended - it will be considered null and void. The suspension of the employment contracts may be applied for up to one (1) month from 20.03.2020, with the possibility of extension following a joint decision of the Ministers of Finance and Labour and Social Affairs, taking into account the development of the crisis.
