Background information

According to the Act of Professional Rehabilitation and Employment of People with Disability (OG 157/13, 152/14 i 39/18), a quota system has been introduced. It implies the obligation for all employers who have at least 20 workers to employ a certain number of people with disability in an appropriate workplace and in adequate working conditions or to pay a financial compensation for failure to fulfill this obligation in the amount of 30% of the gross minimum wage (HRK 1,218.75 or € 162.50). According to the Ordinance amending the Ordinance establishing the quota for the employment of persons with disabilities (OG 37/20) this obligation has been changed and reduced.
