Background Information

On 9 March 2020 government adopted amendments to Cabinet Regulations Nr 165 that established additional payment for children to persons who receive allowance for idle time.

Allowance for idle time in general is described in Section 14 of the law “On Measures for the Prevention and Suppression of Threat to the State and Its Consequences Due to the Spread of COVID-19” (adopted on 20 March 2020, valid from 22 March 2020).

The conditions of eligibility for the allowance are set by the Regulation of the Cabinet of Ministers Nr. 165 “Regulations Regarding the Employers Affected by the Crisis Caused by COVID-19 which are Eligible for the Allowance for Idle Time and Division of the Payment for Late Tax Payments in Installments or Deferral Thereof for up to Three Years”.

Content of measure

An employee who receive the allowance for idle time is granted also additional payment in amount of EUR 50 for each dependent child in age 24 years old if at the moment of awarding the allowance for idle time the personal income tax relief for the child is applied to the employee. The additional payment is made by the State Social Security agency for the period of idle time allowance. The State Social Security agency receives information on the persons who receive the allowance for the idle time from the State Revenue Service. The additional payment is transferred to the employee's bank account to which the idle time allowance is transferred.
