Background Information

The Ministries of Labor and Interior, in the context of the extraordinary measures (Circular Ministry of Labour no 123339/404/12.03.2020 and the Circulars of Ministry of Interior no 108/7874/2020 and no 109/oik.8000) taken in the labour market to address and limit the spread of COVID 19, provided measures to facilitate workers from vulnerable groups, of the public and private sector, in order not to endanger their health. The duration of the measure shall be extended for the entire period to be applied the measures to deal with the COVID 19.

Content of measure

In the private sector, workers belonging to vulnerable groups and their health status may be at risk due to the COVID-19 pandemic, are entitled to abstain from work and the employer is obliged to accept their abstention as soon as he will be informed. In any case, the leave of “special purpose” and remote work can be applied.

During the stay of the employee at his home, the employer is obliged to pay the entire employee's salary, unless the company has suspended its activity due to a public order or is severely affected by COVID-19 and is implementing the measure of suspension of employment contracts. In the public sector, for the period of validity of the emergency measures, public servants and employees in local government, who are from vulnerable groups, may be justifiably absent on special leave, unless they are already on leave.
