Case created	09 April 2020 (updated 06 May 2020)

Background information

The measure is taken in order to keep local businesses afloat due to the corona crisis and is provided in the Law 27(1) 2020 'Emergency Measures taken by the Ministry of Labour, Welfare and Social Insurances for the Confrontation of the Pandemic of Coronavirus COVID 19'.

The measure provides an extension for the payment of social insurances in order to support businesses and employers during the course of the pandemic crisis that hit the country.

* On Wednesday 8 April, the President of the Republic announced the decision of the Cabinet to extent the measure up until 12 June 2020. Currently, the Ministry of Labour undertakes a legal and technical processing of the measure.

Content of measure

All businesses and self-employed workers that cannot afford to pay the owed payments due to the crisis to the Social Insurance Funds of March 2020, including the payments in accordance with the (1) Social Insurances Law, (2) the General Healthcare System Law, (3) the Paid Annual Leave Law, (4) the Termination of Employment Law and (5) the Social Cohesion Law are eligible to make use of the extension of the period.

The final deadline for the payment is 14 April 2020. After this date, payments fall due and the law provides for additional fees and/or burden of the due payments in accordance with the respective laws as above.

Use of measure
