Background Information

The government with a law, in the context of the “measures to address the coronavirus COVID 19 pandemic and other emergency provisions”, introduces an extraordinary financial aid to personnel of hospitals, health centers and other structures of the Ministry of Health as well as to the personnel of the General Secretariat for Civil Protection. The extraordinary aid is paid for the year 2020 and amounts to ½ of their basic monthly salary.

Content of measure

The provision of the extraordinary financial aid to employees of the Public Health Sector and the Civil Protection personnel, is paid for the year 2020 and amounts to ½ of their basic monthly salary. The beneficiaries of the exceptional financial assistance are all personnel, with any employment relationship (public or private law, project contracts, etc.), who offered services to public hospitals supervised by the Ministries of Health, National Defense and Education and Religious Affairs. These include those employed in the employment or apprenticeship programs of the OAED, the staff of the Ministry of National Defense who were moved to the above mentioned bodies as well as any administrative, medical, nursing and other staff recruited, seconded, moved and therefore made available to these bodies to assist the overall effort to deal with the pandemic of coronavirus. The payment of the financial aid was made on 9 April and concerns approximately 110,000 workers
