Background information

Refund of the overpayment of a value added tax is a measure introduced with the objective to make available additional financial resources to deal with the crisis caused by the COVID-19 virus.

The measure is introduced in Section 6 of the law “On Measures for the Prevention and Suppression of Threat to the State and Its Consequences Due to the Spread of COVID-19” (adopted on 20 March 2020, valid from 22 March 2020).

Content of measure

Normally, according to Section 109 of the Value Added Tax Law, the State Revenue service carry forward the approved amount of overpaid tax to the next taxation period.

Section 6 of the 'Law On Measures for the Prevention and Suppression of Threat to the State and Its Consequences Due to the Spread of Covid-19' sets forth different procedures for the anticipated refund of overpaid value added tax in the time period from 1 April 2020 to 31 December 2020. During this time period the procedures of refunding laid down in Sections 109 and 110 of the Value Added Tax Law should not be applied.

State Revenue Service has to refund the approved and overpaid amount of value added tax which has been submitted to State Revenue Service after 31 March 2020 within 30 days.

Prior to the refund of the approved and overpaid amount of value added tax, State Revenue Service has to cover the taxes and duties of the taxpayer administered by the State Revenue Service, other payments stipulated by the State and the payments related thereto.
